A REGULATION relating to motor vehicles; providing for the downgrade by removal and reinstatement of the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle of the holder of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit under certain circumstances; providing for the permanent revocation or suspension of the commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit of a person convicted of certain criminal offenses; revising provisions governing the registration, operation and monitoring of third-party certifiers, third-party companies and third-party schools that provide commercial motor vehicle skills testing; revising provisions governing persons who act or request to act as the responsible party for a third-party company or third-party school; authorizing the waiver of certain tests when reinstating the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle; revising certain requirements for applicants for and holders of commercial driver's licenses and commercial learner's permits; revising certain requirements relating to medical examinations required for applicants and holders of commercial driver's licenses and commercial learner's permits; revising requirements for a medical examination required for an application for a waiver of certain physical requirements to operate a commercial motor vehicle; revising provisions governing certain persons to whom the Department of Motor Vehicles will not issue a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit; making conforming changes; removing certain obsolete references; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law: (1) requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to adopt regulations relating to commercial driver's licenses; and (2) authorizes the Department to authorize any person to administer any driving skills test required to obtain a commercial driver's license if certain requirements are satisfied. (NRS 483.908, 483.912) Existing regulations authorize the Department to accept, in lieu of a skills test conducted by the Department, a certification of the driving ability of a person submitted by certain persons who are registered as third-party

certifiers, including, without limitation, “third-party companies” and “third-party schools.” (NAC 483.12175, 483.1218, 483.1222)

Sections 2 and 7 of this regulation authorize a third-party certifier who is employed by a governmental entity that is a third-party company to apply to the Department for authorization to certify the driving ability of any eligible employee of any other governmental entity in this State.

Section 3 of this regulation defines the term “downgrade by removal” to mean prohibiting the operation of a commercial motor vehicle by withdrawing the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle from the holder of a commercial driver’s license or commercial learner’s permit until that privilege is reinstated.

Section 4 of this regulation provides that the Department will initiate the downgrade by removal of the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle from the holder of a commercial driver’s license or commercial learner’s permit not later than 60 days after receiving notification from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration of the United States Department of Transportation that the holder’s license or permit has been placed in a prohibited status for a violation of a drug or alcohol program that has been reported to the Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration. Section 4 also provides that the Department will reinstate the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle to the holder of a commercial driver’s license or commercial learner’s permit if the Department receives notification from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration that: (1) the holder is no longer in a prohibited status and reinstatement is allowed; or (2) the prior placement of the holder in a prohibited status was erroneous.

Section 5 of this regulation provides for the permanent revocation or suspension of the commercial driver’s license or commercial learner’s permit of a person who has been convicted of certain criminal offenses.

Section 8 and 9 of this regulation revise the requirements for an application for registration as a third-party school or third-party company to certify the driving ability of a person.

Sections 10, 12 and 15-18 of this regulation revise certain requirements for third-party companies, third-party schools and third-party certifiers and for persons who request to act as responsible parties for a third-party company or third-party school.

Section 11 of this regulation removes provisions authorizing the Department to conduct, and a third-party company or third-party school to request, a hearing on the refusal of the Department to renew the registration of a third-party company or third-party school. Sections 11 and 13 of this regulation prohibit the owner of a third-party company or third-party school that has its registration suspended or revoked from applying to register a third-party company or third-party school formed under a different name for the purpose of evading the period of suspension or revocation.

Section 14 of this regulation revises the eligibility requirements for registration as a third-party certifier and revises provisions governing third-party certifiers who are employed by governmental entities.

Section 19 of this regulation revises certain requirements for on-site inspections by the Department of third-party companies, third-party schools and the vehicles which they use to administer skills tests.

Section 20 of this regulation: (1) revises provisions governing the revocation of a registration of a third-party certifier; and (2) removes provisions authorizing the Department to conduct, and a third-party certifier to request, a hearing on the refusal of the Department to renew the registration of a third-party certifier.

Section 21 of this regulation revises a reference to medical boards which are appointed by the Administrator of the Department to assist the Department in determining the physical or mental ability of persons to operate motor vehicles. (NRS 483.205; NAC 483.400)

Existing regulations set forth the conditions under which the Department will waive certain tests of knowledge, driving skills or vision for the purposes of reinstating a driver's license which has been suspended, cancelled or revoked. (NAC 483.471) Section 22 of this regulation provides that the Department may waive the knowledge and driving skills tests when reinstating the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle to the holder of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit which has been downgraded by removal.

Sections 6 and 23 of this regulation make conforming changes to indicate the proper placement of sections 2-5 of this regulation in the Nevada Administrative Code.

Sections 24, 26, 27, 30 and 35-37 of this regulation eliminate obsolete references to a commercial driver's license instruction permit to conform to terminology in federal regulations governing commercial learner's permits. (49 C.F.R. Part 383)

Existing regulations require every person who applies for or holds a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit to provide a current medical examiner's certificate and, if applicable, a document showing that the person was issued: (1) a variance from the requirement to maintain such certificate; or (2) a waiver of certain physical requirements. (NAC 483.801) Beginning in June 2025, the Department will access medical examiner's certificates from the National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, where such certificates are transmitted and stored electronically by certified medical examiners who perform physical qualification examinations for commercial drivers. (49 C.F.R. § 383.73(o)(1)(ii)) Accordingly, section 25 of this regulation eliminates the requirement that the applicant or holder of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit provide such a certificate and instead requires the holder to maintain a medical examiner's certificate.

Existing regulations provide that, before a medical examiner's certificate issued to a holder of a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit expires, the Department may provide notice to the holder that he or she must: (1) undergo a new medical examination and provide to the Department a copy of the new medical examiner's certificate; (2) change his or her self-certification to a type of commerce that does not require a medical examiner's certificate; or (3) appear in person at an office of the Department and apply for a noncommercial driver's license. Existing regulations also provide that the holder may be subject to the cancellation of his or her commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit for failing to perform those required actions. (NAC 483.8013) Section 28 of this regulation: (1) eliminates the requirement that the holder of the license or permit appear in person at an office of the Department and apply for a noncommercial driver's license; and (2) provides that the holder may be subject to the downgrade by removal of his or her privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle for failing to perform the required acts. Effective June 2025, section 29 of this regulation eliminates the requirement that the holder of the commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit provide a copy of his or her medical examiner's certificate, as the Department will access the certificate from the National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners.

Existing regulations provide that a person is subject to the cancellation of his or her commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit for failure to comply with certain requirements relating to medical examiner's certificates. To reinstate such a cancelled license or permit, existing regulations require the person to: (1) pay a reinstatement fee; (2) present a current medical examiner's certificate to the Department; and (3) self-certify as to the type of commerce in which he or she intends to operate a commercial motor vehicle. (NAC 483.8014)

Section 31 of this regulation provides that a person who fails to comply with the requirements relating to medical examiner's certificates is instead subject to the downgrade by removal of his or her privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle. Accordingly, section 31 also eliminates the requirement of the payment of a fee to reinstate a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit which has been cancelled. Effective June 2025, section 32 of this regulation eliminates the requirement that the person present a current medical examiner's certificate to the Department and instead requires that the person obtain the certificate, as the Department will access that certificate from the National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners.

Section 33 of this regulation updates the address of the Department to which a person may submit an application for a waiver of certain physical qualifications to operate a commercial motor vehicle. (NAC 483.803)

Section 34 of this regulation eliminates certain information and certifications by a physician or optometrist which must be included in a medical evaluation that a person must submit to the Department with his or her application for a waiver of certain physical requirements to operate a commercial motor vehicle. Section 34 also provides that a person who has diabetes mellitus treated with insulin is not required to obtain such a waiver or undergo a medical examination unless the person self-certifies that he or she intends to drive in nonexcepted interstate or nonexcepted intrastate commerce.

Existing regulations set forth certain persons to whom the Department will not issue a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit. (NAC 483.825) Section 38 of this regulation provides that the Department will not issue a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit to a person who must use a bioptic telescopic lens to operate a noncommercial vehicle. Section 39 of this regulation provides that, effective November 2024, the Department will not issue a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit to a person who has been placed in a prohibited status as determined by the Department in response to a query of the Drug and Alcohol Clearinghouse of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration.

Section 1. Chapter 483 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this regulation.

Sec. 2. 1. A third-party certifier who is employed by a governmental entity that is a third-party company may apply to the Department, in such form as the Department may prescribe, for authorization to certify the driving ability of any eligible employee of any other governmental entity in this State.

2. A governmental entity that is a third-party company shall maintain a record pursuant to NAC 483.12232 of each employee who is certified pursuant to this section by a third-party certifier of the governmental entity in the same manner as if the employee was an employee of the governmental entity.

2. If the Department receives from the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration notification that:

(a) The holder of a commercial driver’s license or a commercial learner’s permit is no longer in a prohibited status from operating a commercial motor vehicle and the reinstatement of the privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle is allowed; or

(b) The prior placement of the holder of a commercial driver’s license or a commercial learner’s permit in a prohibited status was erroneous, and the status of the holder is restored to the status as it existed before the erroneous placement,

↪ the Department will reinstate the privilege of the holder to operate a commercial motor vehicle.

Sec. 5. If the Department receives notice that a person who holds a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit has been convicted of any offense for which a person is disqualified for life from operating a commercial motor vehicle pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 383.51, the Department will suspend or revoke, as applicable, the commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit of the person. The Department will not reinstate a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit that has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this section. A person whose commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit has been suspended or revoked pursuant to this section is not eligible for a commercial driver's license or commercial learner's permit for the remainder of his or her life.
